Women who... love life!

9th January 2009

Just a quick note to say that after my bit of a blip after the course that all seems on track. Savings buckets have started and accelerator rate is in full swing so the buckets start to fill quicker. I gave up my office which I wasn't using and don't need and made some improvements at home so I have a space to work from and I had a huge de-clutter which was an additional plus as I made some pennies on ebay!

I have a new business plan which changes my business slightly but incorporates a plan to make passive income and cosmic ordered someone who has been there and done it and has offered some fabulous advice.

My vision board is taking over my bedroom and I don't care!

Just a huge thank you – for someone who came on the course thinking I was pretty much sorted I can't believe how some focus has resulted in a much healthier outlook.

Every good wish for the New Year
Fabulous!
